ARTICLE 2 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

2.01 The Union recognizes the exclusive right of the Employer to manage and assign the workforce in a fair and reasonable manner subject to the terms of the Collective Agreement. The Union further recognizes the right of the Employer to operate and manage its business in all aspects in accordance to its responsibilities.

2.02 The Employer retains the sole right to make, enforce, and alter from time to time reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by the employees, provided that such rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the Collective Agreement.

The Employer shall make available up-to-date copies of such rules and regulations. The Local Union President will be provided with a copy of such rules and regulations and any amendments thereto.

ARTICLE 3 - RECOGNITION AND REPRESENTATION

3.01 The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent of all employees employed by Carefor Health & Community Services at Ottawa Inner City Health Inc., in the City of Ottawa, Ontario save and except paramedical employees, Nurse Practitioners, RN’s, RPN’s, office and clerical staff, supervisors and persons above the rank of supervisor and anyone covered by a subsisting Collective Agreement.

Such representative(s)/advisors(s), with prior notice given to Management, shall have access to the Employer’s premises in order to deal with such matters. The Employer shall also have rights for outside representation when dealing with grievances, negotiations or such matters.
3.03 Work of the Bargaining Unit

The Employer agrees that there shall be no contracting out of work or services normally performed by members of the Bargaining Unit which would result in any layoff, or reduction of hours or pay, for the members of the Bargaining Unit.

3.04 Definitions of Employees

(a) Full-Time Employee

An employee who is employed on a full-time basis, who regularly works the normal hours of work as defined in this Collective Agreement.

(b) Regular Part-Time (RPT) Employee

An employee who is employed on a regular part-time (RPT) basis and is regularly scheduled to work less than the normal hours of work as defined in this Collective Agreement.

(c) Casual Employee

An employee who is employed on an irregular basis.

(d) Term Employee

Term employees may be hired for a specific term to replace an employee who will be on an approved leave of absence. The term may extend up to the length of the leave of the person being replaced. The individual employed in this position shall be deemed to be on probation for the entire period of employment and release or discharge of such persons shall not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration.

A term employee may also be hired to perform a special non-recurring task, which will last no longer than twelve (12) months. This time may be extended a further six (6) months on mutual agreement of the Union, employee, and Employer.

The term employee may use the job posting provision under the Collective Agreement. Should the employee be successful in securing a regular permanent position and completes the probationary period the employee will be credited with seniority from the original date of hire provided there has been no break in service longer than thirty (30) days between the end of their temporary status and the start of their permanent status.
Employees not covered by the terms of this Agreement will not perform any work exclusively performed by employees within the bargaining unit except for: the purposes of instruction, experimentation; in an emergency when regular employees are not readily available.

ARTICLE 4 - HARASSMENT AND EMPLOYMENT EQUITY

4.01 Carefor is committed to providing a collegial working environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. All employees have the right to freedom from harassment in any Carefor workplace. The harassment of any employee by another employee constitutes a serious disciplinary infraction and will be subject to disciplinary measures up to and including termination of employment of the offending employee pending an investigation. Harassment is illegal and is a violation of the Human Rights Code and will not be tolerated.

The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination or harassment against any employee and/or potential employee by reason of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed (religion), sex (gender), age, (record of offences) which are not work related, marital status, family status and number of dependents, sexual orientation, political affiliation, membership in the Union, disability or any other factor which is not pertinent to the employment relationship.

Harassment can be either psychological or physical or it can be a combination of both. It is any behavior whether deliberate or negligent, which denies individuals their dignity and respect, is offensive, embarrassing and/or humiliating to the individual and adversely affects the working environment.

Workplace harassment may include:

i) Harassment of an employee on a prohibited ground as per Article 4.01

ii) “Personal” harassment which involves unwelcome behaviour that demeans or embarrasses an employee, but is not based on the above prohibited grounds.

These advances may be accompanied by threats of reprisal or promises of benefits, made to coerce the recipient into granting sexual favours.

iv) A “poisoned” environment is one in which insulting or degrading comments or actions, based on an excluded ground, have had an adverse effect on the way in which one or more employees are treated by others. 4.03 Harassment of any employee is recognized as a form of discrimination and may be the subject of a grievance using the procedures set out in Article 10 of this Agreement. The steps outlined in the procedures on workplace harassment shall be used in addressing a claim of workplace harassment. Both the complainant and the respondent have the right to be accompanied by someone with whom they feel comfortable during any interviews or meetings. This person may be a Union official or a colleague.

4.04 Persons making a complaint, as well as anyone else involved in filing, investigating or adjudicating a complaint, should not be penalized for doing so. Anyone who retaliates in any way against a person who is being involved in a harassment complaint will be subject to the same penalties as someone found to have engaged in harassing or discriminatory behaviour.

Agenda items to be discussed shall be exchanged in writing prior to the meeting.

A Bargaining Committee of the Union shall be elected and consist of not more than two (2) members of the bargaining unit. The Union will advise the Employer of its committee members and all other members of the Executive. The Employer will advise the Union of its appointees to act on its behalf. An employee who is a member of the bargaining committee shall suffer no loss of regular pay for time spent at negotiation meetings with the Employer. Meetings shall be scheduled at a time agreed to by management and the Union to a maximum of two (2) paid days for each one year term of the Collective Agreement (e.g. 3 year term provides for up to six (6) days).

9.04 Preparation time

It is understood that preparation for negotiations, grievances, Union meetings, etc., is not paid time.
ARTICLE 10 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

10.01 For purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as a difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

10.02 In support of healthy working relationships, Managers encourage employees to address with them issues of concern.

It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that complaints of employees shall be addressed and resolved as quickly as possible. It is understood that an employee has no grievance until she/he has first given her/his immediate supervisor/manager the opportunity to address and resolve their complaints.

Complaint Process

An employee may submit a written complaint form (attached Schedule B) to their immediate supervisor/manager within seven (7) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to it have occurred or ought reasonably to have come to the attention of the employee and/or the Union. The Complaint form is signed by the employee and the immediate supervisor/manager. A copy of the complaint will be given to the Shop Steward and the Director of Human Resources or designate immediately. The Shop Steward and the Director of Human Resources may act as resources and support to the parties. The immediate supervisor/manager will respond in writing within seven (7) calendar days. If the employee is not satisfied, the employee may approach the Union with the intent to file a grievance as follows:

Step 1 – Filing a Grievance

The Union may submit a written grievance signed by both the grievor and the Shop Steward to the Director of Human Resources within seven (7) calendar days following the receipt of the written response to the complaint. The Director of Human Resources will designate a Director to respond to the grievance. Within seven (7) calendar days a meeting will be held between the Director and the Grievance Committee.

It is understood and agreed that a National Representative of the Union may attend the meeting and the grievor will be present at the meeting. The decision of the Director shall be delivered in writing within seven (7) calendar days following the date of such meeting. A copy of the grievance reply will be provided to the National Representative of the Union.
Step 2 – Elevating a Grievance

Within seven (7) calendar days following the decision under Step 1, the Union may submit the written grievance to the CEO or her/his designate. A meeting will be held between the CEO or her/his designate, and the grievance committee within seven (7) calendar days of the submission of the grievance at Step 2.

It is understood and agreed that a National Representative of the Union may attend the meeting and the grievor will be present at the meeting.

The CEO, or her/his designate will deliver her/his decision in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date on which the meeting was held. It is further agreed that the Employer may at any time have the assistance of outside representation or Council. A copy of the grievance reply will be provided to the National Representative of the Union.

Failing a satisfactory settlement being reached in Step 2, the Union may refer the dispute to arbitration within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the written response from the CEO, or her/his designate.

Time limits at any step in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties to the grievance.

10.03 After a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer shall not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee without consent of the Union.

Individual Grievance
Any dispute affecting one (1) employee constitutes an individual grievance.

Group Grievance
Any dispute affecting two (2) or more employees which is taken up on their behalf by the Union constitutes a group grievance and shall be initiated at Step 2. Names of all grievors must appear on submission of a group grievance.

Policy Grievance
Any dispute arising between the Employer and the Union on matters which involve the interpretation, application or administration of the Collective Agreement in whole or in part shall be termed a policy grievance and shall be initiated at Step 2.
10.04 No grievance shall be deemed to be lost/won due to minor technical irregularities.

10.05 The time limits specified in the Grievance and/or Arbitration Procedure may be altered upon mutual agreement of the parties to this Collective Agreement in writing.

10.06 With mutual agreement of both parties, the unresolved grievance once having followed the steps of the grievance procedures in this Article may be referred to a Mediator. The cost of such Mediator will be shared between both parties. Should an arbitration hearing become inevitable, the parties agree to meet at least once more prior to the scheduled hearing date to attempt to resolve the matter. If the matter is still unresolved, then the parties may agree to a Statement of Facts prior to the hearing.

ARTICLE 11 - ARBITRATION

11.01 When either party requests that any matter be submitted to arbitration as provided in the foregoing Article, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party to this Agreement, and at the same time name a nominee. Within seven (7) calendar days thereafter the other party shall name a nominee provided, however, that if such party fails to name a nominee, as herein required, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario shall have power to effect such appointment upon application thereto by the party invoking the arbitration procedure. The two (2) nominees shall attempt to select by agreement a chairman of the Arbitration Board. If they are unable to agree upon such a chairman within a period of fourteen (14) calendar days, they shall then request the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint a chairman.

11.02 No person may be appointed to the Board of Arbitration who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance save and except the appointment of a Mediator/Arbitrator pursuant to the Ontario Labour Relations Act.

11.03 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all requisite steps of the Grievance Procedure.

11.04 The Arbitration Board shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify, add to or amend any part of this Agreement.
11.05 The proceedings of the Arbitration Board will be expedited by the parties hereto and the decision of the majority and where there is no majority the decision of the chairman will be final and binding upon the parties hereto and the employee or employees concerned.

11.06 The Employer shall not be required to pay Union Representatives on the Grievance Committee or the grievor for time spent at arbitration hearings. Each party shall pay its own expenses for its nominee and witness and the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by both parties.

11.07 Wherever Arbitration Board is referred to in the Agreement, the parties may mutually agree in writing to substitute a single Arbitrator for the Arbitration Board at the time of reference to arbitration and other provisions referring to the Arbitration Board shall appropriately apply.

ARTICLE 12 - DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

12.01 Discharge and Discipline Procedure

The release of a probationary employee for reasons based on performance and ability to do the job, including skills, and suitability, shall not be subject to the grievance procedure unless a probationary employee is released for:

(a) reasons which are arbitrary, discriminatory or in bad faith;

(b) exercising a right under this Agreement.

A claim by an employee who has completed her/his probationary period that she/he has been unjustly discharged or suspended shall be treated as a grievance with the Employer at Step 1 within seven (7) calendar days after the date of discharge or suspension is effected. An employee shall have the reason(s) in writing at the time of discharge or suspension in the presence of her/his Steward or Union Representative.

Where the Employer intends to discipline an employee, the employee will be notified that she/he may have Union representation. Should the employee wish Union representation, the interview will not proceed until a Union Representative can be made available. If the employee declines Union representation, the person will signify this in the form of a waiver which will be forwarded to the Local President or designate.

In all cases of discipline outside the probationary period, the Employer shall subscribe to the principle of progressive discipline.
Progressive Discipline Procedure

The Employer accepts and gives effect to the principle of progressive discipline, and therefore agrees that, except in cases of extreme misconduct, discipline will proceed in four stages: verbal warning, written warning, suspension(s), discharge.

12.02 Right To Have A Steward Present

At the time formal discipline is imposed or at any stage of the grievance procedure, including the complaint stage, an employee is entitled to be represented by her/his Union Representative. In the case of suspension or discharge, the Employer shall notify the Union in advance.

12.03 A disciplinary record of a verbal or written warning of an employee should not be used against him/her after twelve (12) months from the date thereof, and will be physically removed, providing there has been no recurrence of a similar offence.

12.04 Personnel Records

A copy of any completed performance appraisal which is to be placed in an employee's file shall be first reviewed with the employee. The employee shall initial such performance appraisal and shall have the opportunity to add her/his views to such evaluation prior to it being placed in her/his file. A copy of the performance appraisal will be given to the employee for their records.

Upon request and after having given reasonable notice, an employee may review her/his file in the presence of her/his supervisor or designate and be provided with a copy of any document contained therein.

No document shall be used in disciplinary proceedings against an employee where it has not been brought to the employee's attention at the time of the occurrence giving rise to said occurrence.

ARTICLE 13 - SENIORITY

13.01 Seniority for full-time employees shall be defined as length of continuous service in the Bargaining Unit with the Employer since the date of last hire, which is based on 2080 hours, which equals one (1) year. Seniority for regular part-time (RPT) and casual employees shall be based on paid hours accumulated in the bargaining unit since the last date of hire in the bargaining unit and 2080 working hours equals one (1) year of service.

Seniority will be posted in terms of years of service. An accurate seniority list shall be maintained by the Employer. Copies will be furnished to the Union in the months of January, April, July and October in accordance with Article 19.04, or whenever the need arises to have an up-to-date list available, e.g. due to layoffs etc. Members will have a maximum of 60 days to challenge the accuracy of the data. Failing any challenges or any change that may be needed as identified during the 60 days, the seniority list will be deemed accurate.

13.03 The probationary period for full-time employees shall be six (6) months worked from date of last hire. Regular part-time (RPT) and casual employees shall be considered to be on probation for a period of nine hundred (900) hours or six (6) calendar months whichever comes first. The probationary period may be extended with the mutual consent of all parties with the length of the extension specified in writing.

It is recognized that the probationary period is to allow the Employer in its discretion, to determine if such employee is capable of performing the position.

13.04 Seniority shall be retained and accumulated when an employee is absent from work under the following circumstances:

(a) when on an approved leave of absence with pay;

14.03 Temporary coverage for absences from work will be offered to employees in the following manner:

(a) Vacancies of less than ninety (90) days may be covered by existing staff on the unit, by seniority. In the event that existing staff cannot cover the vacancy, it will be offered first to regular part-time then casual employees based on seniority provided that they have the skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position.

(b) Vacancies expected to be ninety (90) days or more would be posted and filled according to the provisions of the Collective Agreement.

(c) If the position cannot be filled internally, then the Employer may fill the position from outside the bargaining unit.

(d) Regular part-time (RPT) and casual employees assigned to temporary full-time employment through the application of this provision will maintain their regular part-time (RPT) status for the duration of the assignment.

(e) The length of temporary employment may be extended by mutual agreement of the Union, the employee and the Employer.

(f) Employees in a current temporary position may be eligible for and/or may apply for additional temporary positions that are scheduled to commence after the completion of the incumbent's current temporary position.

14.04 Transfers that result in an employee moving into a position of lower classification level will not generally be considered except in the following situations:

(a) When an employee is the successful applicant and accepts the position of a lower classification the employee shall be paid at the pay scale of the lower classification.

(b) The Employer requests the temporary assignment of an employee of a higher classification to fill the assignment until such time as the position can be filled through the staffing process or until the return of the job holder from a temporary absence. The employee accepts the temporary transfer and maintains the pay rate of their position with the higher classification.
